$5.49

One Dozen Oak Rockers

Exactly like cut. Genuine leather upholstering, spring seat, strong and durable, golden oak finish. We wish we had fifty instead of a dozen of these rockers for they are easily worth $9.00 as the price has advanced materially since they were bought. Watch our windows for the display.

Our Fall Showing of Rugs

surpasses anything yet seen in this vicinity. They include the famous Whitall line of Wilton's and Body Brussels Rugs. Sanford's, Axminster and Tapestry Rugs. A call from you is solicited.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Ladies, run your eye over Shea's ad—adv.

Peter Bianchi went to Burlington this morning to visit friends.
Frank Lawless of South Barre is a business visitor in Burlington to-day.

Mrs. Gilbert Cutler has been making a visit of several days with relatives in Hardwick.
Sadler, Keith avenue, specializes in ladies', misses' and girls' coats. Fall and winter designs now on display.

Mrs. Agnes Kinkadee returned to the city last evening after passing several weeks at Pine Springs, Lake Spofford, N. H.
Thomas Belville of Graniteville passed through the city this morning while on his way to Quebec, Canada, there to make a visit of several days with relatives.

Mrs. T. R. McLean, who has been visiting in Graniteville, her former home, for a few days, returned yesterday to her home in Littleton, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gale Bennett are moving their household effects from the house at 202 Washington street into the Sargent house, so called, on Spaulding street.

Mr. and Mrs. Durante C. Rizzi, who were married Thursday forenoon, left the city early this morning for a 10 days' visit with relatives in Boston and Quincy, Mass.

A deal was consummated yesterday through the J. J. Dasher & Son Real Estate agency whereby Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Bianchi of Northfield disposed of one of their cottage houses on High Holborn street, this city, to Felix Monti.

Mr. and Mrs. Alger J. Baldwin of Washington street left the city this morning for Syracuse, N. Y., where they are to spend a few weeks with the former's brother. Before returning to Barre they will visit other cities in western New York.

Miss Frances Hazel of Brook street left the city Wednesday for Oklahoma City, Okla., where she is to enter Mount St. Mary's convent as a student in the department of domestic science. Her aunt, Miss Gertrude McCarthy, accompanied her a part of the distance.

One of the most slightly potato groupings yet to be exhibited in Barre is shown in the display window at the store of the Tilden Shoe Co., where 11 unusually large tubers, were placed by A. D. Young of Young Bros., granite manufacturers. Farmer Young grew the potatoes on a garden plot near his home in Berlin. They are of the Early Rockface variety.

Workmen in the employ of the George E. Bond granite shed on Depot square had a narrow escape from injury Wednesday forenoon. While they were lifting a large stone one of the beams which holds the mast of the derrick in place broke, letting the derrick fall into the yard. A new beam will be secured at once and Mr. Bond expects the derrick back in commission in a few days.

Miss Marguerite Gerry of Washington, D. C., who has been visiting at the home of her uncle, Lyman Hutchinson, in Randolph, is a guest of her cousin, E. R. Hutchinson of Wellington street. For several years Miss Gerry has contributed stories to the Harper publications and the Ladies' Home Journal, and some of her literary efforts have been issued in book form, among them being "The Old Toy Shop."

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Nelson of Academy street returned to the city yesterday after having passed several days in Springfield, Mass., where they were present at the wedding of Miss Annabelle Petrie and James McDonald, the latter a brother of Mrs. Nelson. During their absence they visited at Westfield and talked with a number of the Barre boys who were enrolled in C company when the 1st Vermont regiment left Fort Ethan Allen.

Benjamin M. Batchelder of Park street, who has been employed as a driver at the fire station for the past five years, completed his duties yesterday and is now employed as a driver for Smith & Cummings. Mr. Batchelder has served efficiently as a driver of the hook and ladder truck and his decision to leave the service is regretted by other members of the regular force. For the time-being, substitutes will fill the vacancy caused by his resignation.

G. E. Perry, who has been associated with P. A. Noonan in the undertaking business on Depot square for several years, has been appointed a member of the executive committee of the Vermont Funeral Directors & Embalmers' association, the announcement having been made by Frank J. Dwyer of Burlington, recently elected president of the association at its annual meeting in the Queen city. The other members of the committee are George M. Clifford of Rutland and Thomas W. Gurney of Burlington.

Undertaken by a frosty touch in the atmosphere, the members of the Barre pipe band assembled in City park last evening for the third of a series of open-air concerts arranged by the aldermanic band committee. Under the leadership of Pipe Major Eustace Ritchie the pipers and drummers gave a very enjoyable program of marches, etc., and a sizeable crowd applauded the musicians at every turn. One of the features of the repertoire was a selection, "McGregor O'Rora, Over the Sea," by Piper Riddell.

One of the most desirable residential properties in the city figured in a transaction recently when Herman E. Reynolds disposed of his dwelling house on the Patterson street corner at 194 Washington street to Aaron Gustafson of the granite manufacturing firm of Johnson & Gustafson. The purchaser is to take possession Oct. 1, at which time he is to vacate the house now occupied by him at 27 Currier street. Mr. Reynolds plans to move into an apartment in the house at 202 Washington street owned by H. C. Patterson and occupied until recently by Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bennett, who are moving to Spaulding street.

For the fifth successive year, John Papin was elected chief ranger of St. John's court, No. 925. Court, was held at the annual business meeting last evening. Other officers elected are as follows: Vice ranger, Lawrence O'Kelly; recording secretary, Patrick Bernoni; financial secretary, Edward J. McNulty; treasurer, Arthur J. Loranger; speaker, Thomas Burke; trustee, E. J. Dion; delegate to the state convention, John Papin; alternate, E. J. McNulty. Following the business meeting a smoke talk was enjoyed and light refreshments were served. The newly elected officers are to be installed in October. The Barre court is making arrangements to entertain the annual state convention, to be held here in June, 1918.

Everything Ready for Your Fall and Winter Shopping!

We are so well pleased with our assortment that we know you will be. Considering the market our assortment is exceptional. We will have more than the usual amount of compliments this season. Very hard to describe all of these new things. If you are not ready to buy you should do a little of your looking around early in the season.

YOUR CORSETS ARE THE FOUNDATION OF YOUR DRESS APPEARANCE. They should be selected before you are fitted to your new fall costumes. What make of Corsets are you to buy?

R. & G. Corsets

Some prefer the Lace Front, others the hook style. Both have the same body lines.

R. & G. Corsets are all of them steam moulded. They feel different. They are softer and hold their shape better.

Lady Ruth Lace Front Corsets that have taken the trade in large cities are the same forms as the R. & G. Corsets, made by them in same forms that fit so well.

If you are a wearer of R. & G. Corsets, no other make will ever quite suit you. Styles from $1.00 up to $5.00 per pair.

R. & G. School Girl Corsets are a great addition to the line. Young ladies want a Corset made for them, not one made for their mothers. Here they have it, at only $1.00 per pair. Just what the young lady wants.

DE BEVOISE BRASSIERES are the kinds that have values that other manufacturers would like to have. It's the best assortment on the market. More for your money.

Our Corset Kinds

are Royal Worcester, R. & G. and Nemo Corsets, Fern Waists and De Bevoise Brassieres. If there are other kinds as good as the five makes, we don't know it.

Ferris Waists are the standard Waist of this country. De Bevoise Brassieres are the kind that others try to imitate. R. & G. Corsets are in a class by themselves. Royal Worcester Corsets are the kind that have outdone all foreign makes.

Nemo Corsets would not have the largest Corset sales in America if they were not of a special design.

Nemo Corsets were designed by doctors as a help to correct the health of every wearer. Their sale will prove that they have fulfilled their design. They are a wonderful Corset. One pair will prove to you their object.

None too early to select your Fall Millinery. We were never so busy at this time of the year before. A large assortment at Dry Goods profits. Can save a little as you purchase.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See Abbott's 49c ladies' underwear in bargain basement.

Dr. W. G. Huntley of Northfield visited with friends in town yesterday.

John McCaskill returned to Burlington last night after a visit of several days in the city.

James Mitchell left this morning for Marshfield, where he is passing a few days at his camp on Niggerhead pond.

Mrs. Julia Richardson of Jefferson street is passing several days with relatives in St. Johnsbury and western New Hampshire.

A full line of undergarments in cotton and silk, neatly trimmed and workmanship perfect, at popular prices. The Shepard Co., Inc.

Miss Rose Gordon left this morning for Lebanon, N. H., where she is to be employed in the restaurant conducted by Edson Lander, formerly of this city.

Stanley Tassie of South Main street, who is taking a vacation from his duties in the Marrion Tobacco store, returned last evening from a visit of a week with relatives in North Hero.

Floyd F. Gould, who informed the police that his home was anywhere in New Hampshire, appeared before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this morning, acknowledged a subsequent offense and chose the alternative jail sentence when the judge imposed a fine of $15 and costs. Gould was locked up on an intoxication charge last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Waterman and child, who have been passing the summer with relatives in Barre and Plainfield, left the city this afternoon for Kingston, Pa., where the former has secured a position on the faculty of Wyoming seminary. Mr. Waterman, who is a graduate of the University of Vermont, was engaged for a few years as an instructor in the Volkman school, Cambridge, Mass., and in Kingston he is to teach mathematics and military science.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Sadler, Keith avenue, particularly good values in baby carriages and strollers.

George Robinson and C. C. Warren of Waterbury are business visitors in town to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ladrie of Nelson street left yesterday for Quebec, where they will spend two weeks with relatives.

Miss Evelyn Phelps will be at the waiting room in the Aldrich building Saturday evening from 7 to 10 to receive pledges made toward the Red Cross campaign fund last June. Checks should be made payable to Mrs. Robert Q. McDonnell.

John Sowles is confined to his home on Beckley street for a few days on account of a slight accident, which occurred while he was working at the Jones Bros. shed yesterday. Mr. Sowles was working on a step-ladder when in some manner he slipped and fell, cutting his face in several places on the stone chips which were lying around.

Still Plenty of Work for Gardeners and Others.

With the coming of September days and the severe frosts the idea may prevail that the work for gardeners has practically ended for the season. This by no means is the condition. There is abundant work for all in helping to destroy the weeds before the time when the ground will need to be prepared for next year's planting.

The condition in some sections of our city is really alarming, where unused plots of ground and strips along the sides of streets and walks are simply overrun with obnoxious and harmful weeds, which exist also in smaller quantities in gardens which have been cultivated during the season. Some of these weeds bear heads in which are hidden hundreds of seeds just ready to ripen and fall near by, be borne by the winds or carried by the birds to more distant spots. Wherever they lodge it will mean much work for someone to uproot them another season. If within a short time they could be pulled up or cut down and the seed heads destroyed before they mature, much labor may be saved, to say nothing of the more slightly appearance of the spots improved. But it is essential for the success of the work to positively destroy the seeds either by burning, the application of boiling suds or some other process which shall be effective.

If the present high prices of food continue, when another spring opens we shall again be confronted by the problem of producing all that is possible from our cultivated areas and there will be no extra time for fighting unnecessary weeds.

Therefore, we would ask and urge not only those children who have been caring for school gardens but one and all to assist in a general campaign against these weeds.

If each of the larger children in our community pulled just a few each day for a short time and the grown-ups helped by caring for some wherever they found them, it would make a vast difference another season. Let everybody do their "bit" along this line.

Blanche J. Tilden,
Director of School Gardens.
